personal

born 5 August 1945 in Cleveland, Ohio married to Sirkku Unelma Härkönen, 24 June 1968 7 children

education

- | | |
|------|--|
| 1963 | graduated from Sunset High School, Beaverton, Oregon |
| 1969 | BA (major in English, minor in mathematics), Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah |
| 1971 | MA (linguistics), University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois |
| 1972 | PhD (linguistics), University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois |

teaching positions

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| 1970-1972 | instructor of the introductory and advanced graduate courses in mathematical linguistics, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois |
| 1972-1979 | assistant professor of linguistics, University of Texas, Austin, Texas |
| 1979-1981 | assistant professor of English and linguistics, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah |
| 1981-1986 | associate professor of English and linguistics, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah |
| 1986-2001 | professor of English and linguistics, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah |
| 2001- | professor of linguistics and English language, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah |
| 2007- | associate chair, department of linguistics and English language, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah |

visiting positions

- 1981 linguistics, visiting professor, University of California at San Diego, La Jolla, California (linguistic evidence, phonological theory)
- 1982 linguistics, Fulbright lecturer, University of Tampere, Finland (probabilistic linguistics, phonological theory)
- 2001 linguistics, research fellow, Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics, Nijmegen, The Netherlands (analogical modeling, quantum computing)

consulting

- 1978-1982 Houghton Mifflin, Boston (grades 1-8 spelling program: 1st edition, 1982; 2nd edition, 1985)
- 1979-1980 Weidner Communications, Provo, Utah (structure of English)
- 1984 WordPerfect Corporation, Orem, Utah (first spelling checker for WordPerfect [version 4.0])
- 1984-1985 International Telephone and Telegraph, Shelton, Connecticut (probabilistic linguistics and English spelling and pronunciation)
- 1986 Genealogical Department, LDS Church, Salt Lake City, Utah (spelling of names)
- 1989 Collins Publishers, Edinburgh, Scotland (British-American vocabulary differences)
- 1989-1999 LDS Church Scriptures Committee (text of the Book of Mormon)
- 1992 Novell, Provo, Utah (graphics in technical writing)
- 2002 American Board for Certification of Teacher Excellence (standards for high school English teachers)
- 2003 American Diploma Project (knowledge requirements for graduating high school seniors)

awards, lectureships, fellowships, and grants

- 1964 freshman mathematics award, mathematics department, Brigham Young University
- 1969 first prize, Hart-Larson poetry contest, English department, Brigham Young University (“Shocking Spiel”)
- 1969-1972 NDEA fellowship, title IV, University of Illinois, Urbana (linguistics)
- 1974 summer research award, University Research Institute, University of Texas, Austin (acquisition of phonology)
- 1976-1977 Spencer Foundation, Chicago (probabilistic descriptions of English spelling)
- 1985-1986 James L. Barker lectureship in language and linguistics, College of Humanities, Brigham Young University (linguistically difficult passages in the scriptures)
- 1999-2000 Karl G. Maeser Research and Creative Arts Award, Brigham Young University

professional organizations

- National Association of Scholars
 President, Utah Association of Scholars (1999-)

current research interests

- textual criticism (editor, Book of Mormon critical text project) probabilistic and stochastic approaches to linguistics analogical modeling of language quantum computing natural statistics
 phonological theory
 English spelling
 Finnish morphology left-to-right processing grammars of English English usage history of the book

6. Analogical Modeling: An Exemplar-Based Approach to Language, edited by Royal Skousen, Deryle Lonsdale, and Dilworth B. Parkinson. John Benjamins, Amsterdam, 2002. [426 pages]

Note: This book discusses Royal Skousen's theory of analogical modeling and includes contributions from 16 authors from six different countries. The papers were initiated by the international conference on Analogical Modeling of Language held at Brigham Young University on 22-24 March 2000, but virtually all the papers involve later research. Four of the articles, covering 74 pages, are by Skousen himself, who also did most of the editing. The book was peer-reviewed and published as the tenth volume in John Benjamins' series "Human Cognitive Processing".
