

2007 DAVID H. YARN ESSAY CONTEST

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Brigham Young University Department of Philosophy and Aporia are pleased to announce the 2007 David H. Yarn Essay Contest. Submissions on any philosophical or religious topic are welcomed. All submissions must be written by the student submitting the piece, must be less than 15 pages in length, and must have a title page which identifies the author. Submitted papers must be unpublished work that has not previously received any awards. All entrants must be currently enrolled, full-time BYU students. Please, only one submission per person. Any submission failing to meet these criteria or identifying the author on pages other than the title page will be disqualified.

Please give all submissions to Karen Steineckert, the Department Secretary, at 4086 JFSB.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION IS 1 MARCH 2007

